

A Country Christmas with a City Twist-mas

Created by: Nick Robertson, Anna Clark and Alisen Wells
Published by: Lillenas (2017)
Length: 25 minutes

Song Titles:

Welcome to the Family
And That's How It's Done
Because a Baby Came with Away in a Manger
O Come All Ye Faithful with O Come Let Us Adore
Y'all Come Back Now, Ya Hear!

Characters:

There are seven speaking parts in this program. Six kids and one adult.

Summary:

A few kids from the city visit their country cousins for Christmas. They experience a bit of culture shock, but along the way they learn about how the love God shows to us through Christ's birth brings families together, no matter where they are.

Comments:

This program features simple songs and dialogue. It all takes place in one setting, a country home, so scenery requirements are very simple. A few familiar Christmas songs are incorporated into the program, which makes things a little easier for the kids to learn.

Bottom Line:

There's nothing terribly flashy about this one, but if you need something easy, this is a program to consider.
