Summary:

Lindsey and her friends are putting on a Christmas show and are determined to win the local TV station's contest for the "Biggest, Brightest Christmas Show Ever." They plan to impress the secret judge with lots of lights and exciting music. But all of the sudden, the lights go out! Through this they are reminded that Jesus is the true light of Christmas.

Comments:

The storyline of this program is simple and offers a good variety of both high-energy songs and softer more reflective numbers. It is part of the Simple Plus series of kids programs, so it's easy to learn but still offers opportunities to make the program quite impressive. Some of the story, with a bunch of kids trying to put on a big Christmas program but having to do something simpler, is not all that different from the classic TV special A Charlie Brown Christmas.

Bottom Line:

This program has both strong songs and dialogue scenes. It is simple enough for churches of any size to be able produce successfully.
