Characters:

This program has eleven main speaking parts. Eight of the parts are the members of the two competing teams, four on each team.

Summary:

When two teams go head-to-head in a game show contest designed to help needy families at Christmas, they also come face-to-face with big character lessons. They learn the value of teamwork, the danger of pride, how Jesus helps us overcome fear – and that when we apply truth to our lives, God changes our hearts through the power of Jesus Christ.

Comments:

This program is written by the Clydesdale's, which is always a plus. In addition to communicating the Christmas story, this program also has strong lessons about not being afraid and letting our light shine. The game show premise of the story is a lot of fun, but with four people on each of the two teams there are a lot of speaking parts.

Bottom Line:

This is a fun musical with a solid message. It also offers the potential of incorporating a Bible quizzing program along with your rehearsals...since the setting of the musical is a Bible quiz game show.
